

Archive

Description

It establishes local policies and practices that include monitoring the digital preservation environment to help inform format normalization rules over time as standards and tools evolve.

Entities

Archive

It represents a collection of historical data that includes a wide variety of documents. Archives offer a efficient way to preserve data in an organized fashion by providing rich metadata.

Data Retention Policy

Collection that defines the way information is stored so it can be searched and accessed at a later date. Also holds the rules for information disposal when it is no longer needed depending on the type of document, owner and legal dispositions.

Domain Services

Block Agreements

Determines and handle when an agreement is no longer accesible to a user or group of users.

Backups

Handles the programmed and manual data backup scheduling and tasks.

Value Objects

Permission

It will be aware, store and handle user permissions for the domain services tasks and events